

These neighbourhoods contain a high proportion of younger single adults, typically living in flats on their own but often comprise of larger flats shared between multiple occupants. Either way, they will be renting, and this is often from a private landlord, but could also be from the council or housing association.

PROPERTY CHARACTERISTICS

House type

Home ownership

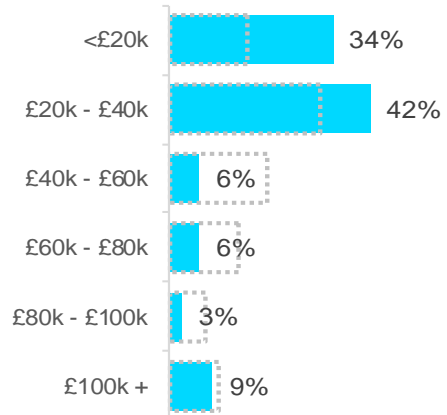

Number of bedrooms

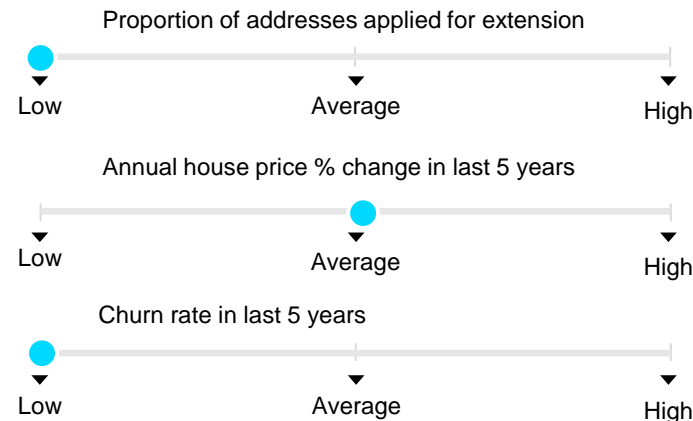

Key for all charts: ■ Acorn type   UK

HOUSEHOLD INCOME

Household income gross before tax

GENTRIFICATION INDICATORS

NEIGHBOURHOOD TYPE

House value

Population density

