

Professional singles and couples in their twenties and thirties are typical of these areas, usually renting the small flats that form the majority of housing from a private landlord. These are areas where accommodation is expensive and rents are high, meaning that whilst their incomes are often above average, their level of disposable income is significantly impacted.

PROPERTY CHARACTERISTICS

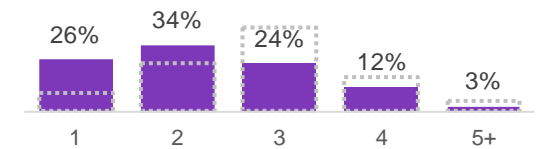

House type

Home ownership

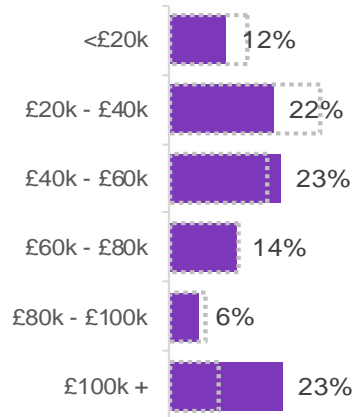

Number of bedrooms

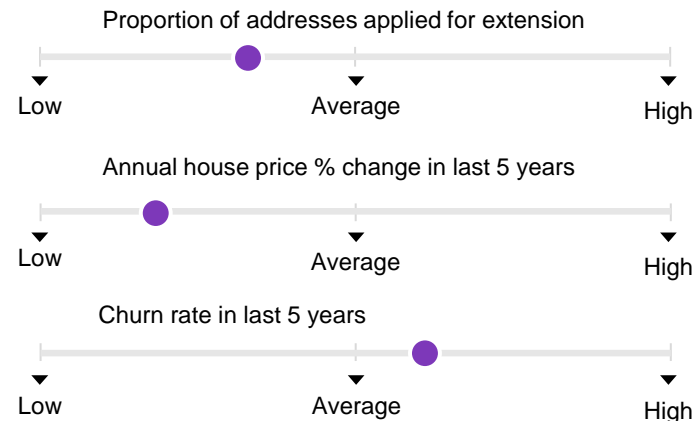

Key for all charts: ■ Acorn type UK

HOUSEHOLD INCOME

Household income gross before tax

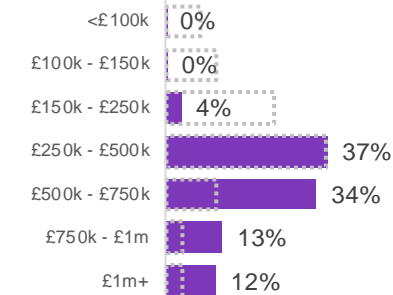

GENTRIFICATION INDICATORS

NEIGHBOURHOOD TYPE

House value

Population density

