

These are stable middle class neighbourhoods where there is likely to be a range of household types from young families through to empty nesters. Housing in these streets often comprises a high proportion of three or four bedroom semi-detached properties, either being bought with a mortgage or owned outright. Incomes are typically above the national average.

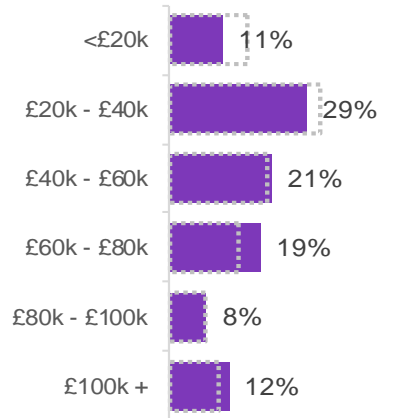

PROPERTY CHARACTERISTICS

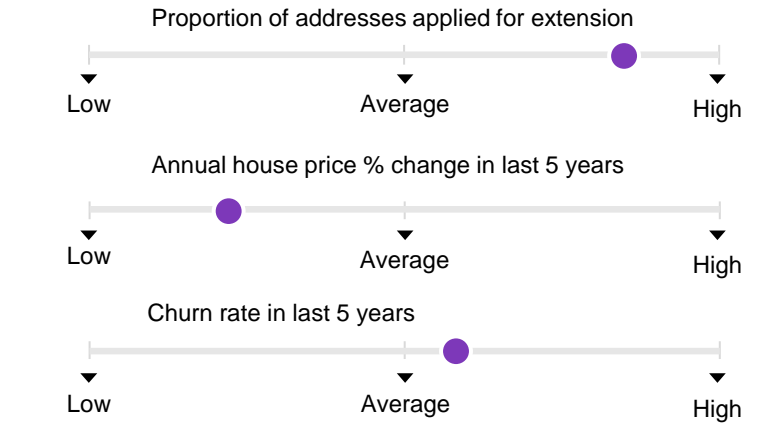

Key for all charts: ■ Acorn type UK

HOUSEHOLD INCOME

Household income gross before tax

GENTRIFICATION INDICATORS

NEIGHBOURHOOD TYPE

