

These majority of this type are larger families, who typically rent their terraced house from the council or local authority. Their homes usually have two or three bedrooms, which can leave these families squeezed for space. Incomes are well below the average in the UK and the level of benefits claimants is relatively high.

PROPERTY CHARACTERISTICS

House type

Home ownership

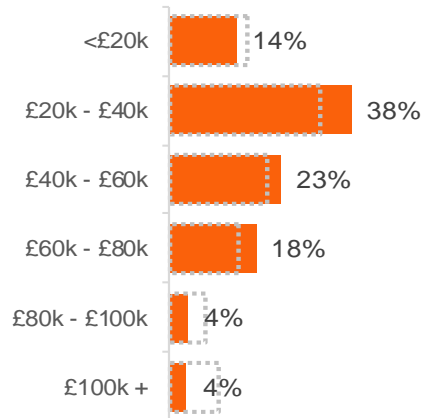

Number of bedrooms

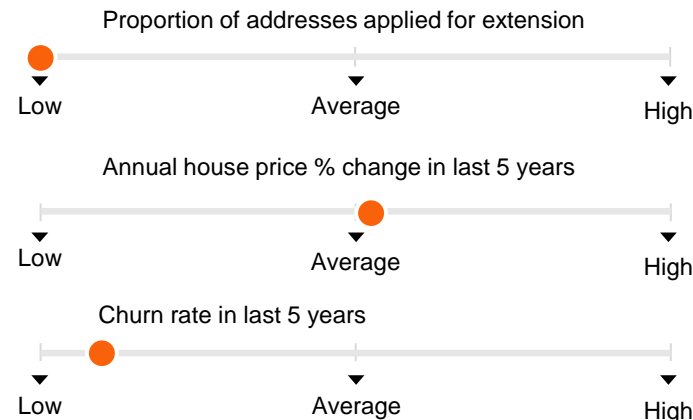

Key for all charts: ■ Acorn type     UK

HOUSEHOLD INCOME

Household income gross before tax

GENTRIFICATION INDICATORS

NEIGHBOURHOOD TYPE

House value

Population density

